利休居士第十五代 裏千家大宗匠 千玄室 名誉教授授与式及び講演会 Dr Genshitsu Sen Honorary Professor Award Ceremony and Public Lecture

演題：茶道の心—平和への道—

Title: The Way to Peace: The Essence of the Way of Tea

要旨： 茶道の精神は、「和敬清寂」という4つの言葉で示されます。それらの言葉を中心に、茶道の心すなわち平和の心について語る。

Content: The four words, Wa 和, Kei 敬, Sei 清, Jaku 寂, or “Harmony, Respect, Purity, Tranquility”, stand for the principles which underlie Chado, or the “Way of Tea”. While elucidating the concepts represented by these words in the context of the Way of Tea, Dr Sen will reveal that Peace is the essence of this Way.

Date: 11 Mar 2013 (Monday)

Time: 3:30pm – 5:00pm

Venue: Room 3505, Academic 2, City University of Hong Kong

Language: Japanese

Speaker: Daisoshō SEN, Genshitsu, Honorary Professor

Dr Genshitsu Sen

Born in 1923. Ph.D. Litt.D. Succeeded as the 15th-generation Urasenke grand master (iemoto) and head of Konnichian in 1964, whereupon he inherited the name Soshitsu. In 2002, he had his son and heir succeed as Urasenke grand master, and changed his own name to Genshitsu. He has advanced the idea of “Peacefulness through a Bowl of Tea” and, with an international view, traveled the world to spread the culture of chado and promote world peace. Currently, his major positions outside the Urasenke organization are as UNESCO Goodwill Ambassador, Japan-U.N. Goodwill Ambassador, Japan Goodwill Tourism Ambassador, Guest Professor at the Osaka University Graduate School, Professor at the University of Hawaii, President of the U.N. Association of Japan, and President of the Japan Equestrian Federation. He has been recognized by the Japanese Government as a Person of Cultural Merit, and has been decorated with the Japanese Order of Culture, the Officier de l’ Ordre National de la Légion d’ Honneur from the French Government, and the UAE Independence Medal First Class, among many decorations. He has been named Honorary Citizen of many cities in Japan and around the world, and received numerous honorary doctorates.
